

WISSENSCHAFTLICHE ARBEITEN UND AUSGEWÄHLTE PRESSEARTIKEL
(Januar – März 2015)
zusammengestellt von Karl-Heinz Krämer
Dies ist ein Auszug aus dem [Literatur-Gesamtverzeichnis von Nepal Research]

- Acharya, Anurag. 2015. Beyond the deadline: People won't be coming on to the streets even if parties miss the 22 January cutoff. Nepali Times, 16 January 2015
- Acharya, Bhanu Bhakta. 2015. Not free yet: Safety and security of journalists remained a challenge in Nepal throughout the past year. The Kathmandu Post, 1 January 2015
- Acharya, Bhanu Bhakta. 2015. What people want: Political agendas espoused by the parties do not necessarily reflect the people's priorities. The Kathmandu Post, 25 February 2015
- Acharya, Krishna Prasad. 2015. Unemployment: A Perennial Problem. The Rising Nepal, 5 March 2015
- Acharya, Pushpa Raj. 2015. 71pc foreign aid mobilised through budget. The Himalayan Times, 19 March 2015
- Acharya, Ram C. 2015. The grand inclusion project: Economic exclusion precludes the majority from opportunities afforded by social and political inclusion. The Kathmandu Post, 14 January 2015
- Acharya, Ram C. 2015. The trinity trap: A presidential government is, perhaps, the best option for Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 6 March 2015
- Acharya, Ram C. 2015. Treasure of Tarai: By not adopting north-south provinces, the country is further postponing an inclusive agenda. The Kathmandu Post, 9 February 2015
- Adhikari, Deepak. 2015. The women warriors: Their story isn't going to end soon. República, 2 January 2015
- Adhikari, Deependra. 2015. Prithvi's legacy: There has been conspicuous lack of objective evaluation and informed debate about the builder of modern Nepal. República, 19 January 2015
- Adhikari, Gyanu. 2015. A dangerous data gap: Invisible particles cause health risks for Kathmandu's residents, but poor data means we do not know how bad the situation really is. The Kathmandu Post, 5 January 2015
- Adhikari, Jagannath. 2015. Crossing the iron gate: Has the rise in the number of girl students appearing for SLC actually reduced gender gaps in education? The Kathmandu Post, 19 March 2015
- Adhikari, Jagannath. 2015. Degrees of doctoring: High costs of medical education prompt doctors to charge high fees for medical services. The Kathmandu Post, 30 March 2015
- Adhikari, Jagannath. 2015. Most of the people: Given complexities of the federalism debate, it would be wise to opt for practical, not absolute, consensus. The Kathmandu Post, 9 January 2015
- Adhikari, Jagannath. 2015. Trust the voter: Instead of cadre-based politics, parties must find genuine agendas that reflect the people's every day concerns. The Kathmandu Post, 19 February 2015
- Adhikari, Jagannath. 2015. Widening the consensus circle: Integrating hills and Tarai while carving states will help them gain comparative advantage of both regions. The Kathmandu Post, 28 January 2015
- Adhikari, Jagdish. 2015. Christian by choice: Nepal's democracy cannot be divorced from respect of human conscience and the freedom of opinion. The Kathmandu Post, 14 January 2015
- Adhikari, Neelam. 2015. Gods and Gomas: Our politics is no different from god's politics; our self-centered "gods" only think of themselves, not of the 27 million Gomas. República, 9 February 2015

Adhikari, Raju. 2015. Language barrier forcing Kisan kids out of schools. República, 27 February 2015

Adhikari, Suman. 2015. Commissions and credibility: Transitional justice mechanisms must incorporate obligations to truth, justice, reparations, accountability. The Kathmandu Post, 11 February 2015

Adhikari, Suman. 2015. Verity and equity: Transitional justice commissions must ensure the sincere implementation of the Supreme Court's February ruling. The Kathmandu Post, 16 March 2015

Adhikary, Dhruva Hari. 2015. The Chinese connection: BOAO forum is an opportunity for President Yadav to pursue bilateral talks with China at the highest level. The Kathmandu Post, 25 March 2015

Amnesty International. 2015. Amnesty International Report 2014-2015 (Nepal Country Entry, Page No. 267 to 269). London: Amnesty International

Arjyal, Hemant. 2015. A comet apperas: Will the addition of new Airbus 320s to NAC's fleet rejuvenate the airline? The Kathmandu Post, 11 January 2015

Arjyal, Hemant. 2015. Grits again: The NAC's new A320 has run into problems even before it begins operations. The Kathmandu Post, 15 March 2015

Aryal, Bijay. 2015. Forgetting the unforgettable: Prithvi Narayan's contributions. The Himalayan Times, 13 January 2015

Aryal, Pramod. 2015. Energy alternatives: Newar civilization's traditional high quality brick making can address looming energy crisis. República, 15 February 2015

Aryal, Pramod. 2015. Good earth: Kathmandu had practiced efficient carbon negative farming system dating back to prehistoric times. República, 7 January 2015

Aryal, Trailokya Raj. 2015. Missing skepticism: We have failed to question, let alone answer, the reasons behind the newfound Chinese interests in Nepal. República, 28 January 2015

Awale, Sonia. 2015. "Patients are impatient": Over-commercialisation of medical care and impoverishment spread antibiotic resistance in Nepal. Nepali Times, 23 January 2015

Awale, Sujata. 2015. Government buildings at risk. The Himalayan Times, 7 March 2015

Awale, Sujata. 2015. Left high and dry: Water woes in the valley will not end even if the Melamchi drinking water project is completed. The Himalayan Times, 25 January 2015

Awale, Sujata. 2015. Nepal hydropower: Challenges and opportunities. The Himalayan Times, 1 March 2015

Baral, Biswas. 2015. Middle class mindset: If the constitution can't, under any circumstances, be drafted without consensus, why did all parties agree to two-third rule to start with? República, 12 February 2015

Baral, Biswas. 2015. Red dwarf: Prachanda is unlikely to agree to any NC-UML proposal that does not acknowledge his outsized role in the peace and constitution process. República, 15 January 2015

Baral, Jagadish Chandra. 2015. Another chance: Department of Forests should demonstrate how ample construction timber can be produced through scientific forest management. República, 5 February 2015

Baral, Lok Raj. 2015. Federalism a political issue, to be decided by political actors. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 26 January 2015

Basnet, Bhagirath. 2015. Can do more: CIAA may lack enough power to intervene in private sector's dealings, but it is powerful enough to control private sector corruption. República, 14 February 2014

Basnet, Bhagirath. 2015. Constitution and government: Separate the two. República, 12 March 2015

Basnet, Bhagirath. 2015. Disappointing drama: Consensus call of the opposition and ruling parties' demand for voting process have embittered the common public. República, 20 January 2015

Basnyat, Binayak / Bhandari, Bikalpa Raj. 2015. A legislative emergency: Following the recent acid attack in Basantapur, stronger and more specific legislation is needed. The Kathmandu Post, 20 March 2015

Basnyat, Buddha / Gelband, Hellen. 2015. Antibiotic resistance: The growth of an unwelcome guest in Nepal. Nepali Times, 23 January 2015

Basnyat, Ratish. 2015. Sub-regional cooperation: It should be the next step. The Himalayan Times, 24 March 2015

Bastola, Surya Nath. 2015. Water resources development: Lack of political will. The Himalayan Times, 6 January 2015

Bhandari, Padam. 2015. Outside farms: Availability of market and transport are the main prerequisites for developing enterprises in the hill and mountains. The Kathmandu Post, 11 February 2015

Bhandari, Ram Kumar / Wilson, Erik B. 2015. Inescapable truths: Reconciliation doesn't mean forgiving the man who ordered the death of your husband as much as rebuilding a relationship with a state that has betrayed you. The Kathmandu Post, 24 March 2015

Bhandari, Ram Kumar. 2015. Down comes the gavel: Conflict victims are waiting for the Supreme Court verdicts to be implemented. The Kathmandu Post, 10 March 2015

Bhandari, Ram Kumar. 2015. Whose commissions? The politically-controlled transitional justice commissions offer little hope for victims of the conflict. The Kathmandu Post, 21 January 2015

Bhandari, Reagan. 2015. Rural Development Through Ecotourism. The Rising Nepal, 2 January 2015

Bhandari, Surendra. 2015. Final countdown: The present deadlock is simply the offshoot of the denial of the Constituent Assembly's autonomy. The Kathmandu Post, 12 January 2015

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2015. Can CA Stay Frozen In Recess? The Rising Nepal, 27 March 2015

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2015. Democratic Majority And Tyranny Of Minority. The Rising Nepal, 13 March 2015

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2015. Third Force And The Labour Of Sisyphus. The Rising Nepal, 20 March 2015

Bhatta, Guna Raj. 2015. Nepal's dream of LDC graduation: Challenges and Issues. The Himalayan Times, 27 February 2015

Bhattarai, Arun. 2015. Physician, heal thyself: Test preparation centres for medical entrance exams need to be brought under government scrutiny. The Kathmandu Post, 13 January 2015

Bhattarai, Baburam. 2015. The mandate of revolution bigger than election mandate. Interview. República, 4 February 2015

Bhattarai, Dinesh. 2015. Collective failure: The process can only work if there is consensus to respect the sanctity of democratic process and people's mandate expressed through CA elections. República, 22 January 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Diminishing returns: This week will be crucial to determining the future course of constitution-drafting in the country. The Kathmandu Post, 31 March 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Framing journalism education in Nepali Universities in accordance with the UNESCO Model Curricula on Journalism Education could help create better journalists in the country. The Kathmandu Post, 14 March 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Man in the middle: Negotiations have taken place mostly between the UML and the Maoists; it is now time for the NC and PM Koirala to take centre-stage. The Kathmandu Post, 17 March 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Past and present: Ensuring inclusion of the marginalised communities in the new states will respect the mandate of both the revolution and elections.

The Kathmandu Post, 3 March 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Poles apart: Amid continuing political polarisation, the only way out of the current impasse is for both ruling and opposition parties to sit for negotiations. The Kathmandu Post, 27 January 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. There is hope: Parties could allow the Questionnaire Committee to do its work but hold off on a majority vote to buy time for consensus. The Kathmandu Post, 6 February 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Too far gone: As a host of factors have fed mutual mistrust among the ruling and opposition parties, a constitution by January 22 is now officially impossible. The Kathmandu Post, 13 January 2015

Bhattarai, Kamal Dev. 2015. Under pressure: Both ruling and opposition blocs are unwilling to sit for substantial talks, but it would be in their own interest to pursue consensus. The Kathmandu Post, 17 February 2015

Bhattarai, Keshav. 2015. Bright lights, big cities: Nepal urgently needs an urban development strategy that will steer urbanisation away from good quality agricultural land. The Kathmandu Post, 10 February 2015

Bhattarai, Keshav. 2015. Managing urbanization: Urban location is assumed to be an engine for economic growth and possibly the only development mantra for poverty alleviation. República, 12 January 2015

Bhattarai, Prakash. 2015. Road to constitution: Political parties adopted a random negotiation model and thus failed to deliver timely constitution. República, 28 January 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Bridging The Gap: Find A Middle Way. The Rising Nepal, 7 February 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Consensus vs Process. The Rising Nepal, 10 January 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Decentralisation In Nepal: Taking Stock Of Local Governance. The Rising Nepal, 7 March 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Investigating Offshore Accounts: Political Will Power Is Needed. The Rising Nepal, 14 February 2014

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Low Spending: Development In Dilemma. The Rising Nepal, 31 January 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Police corruption: Bold steps required. The Himalayan Times, 12 March 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Reforming Security Sector: An Antidote To Corruption. The Rising Nepal, 14 March 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Revitalising Local Governments: Political Commitment Is Needed. The Rising Nepal, 28 March 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Structure of corruption: Where are efforts failing? The Rising Nepal, 28 February 2015

Bhattarai, Pranav. 2015. Unbecoming Behaviour: Stop Hooliganism In Constituent Assembly. The Rising Nepal, 24 January 2015

Bhattarai, Sewa. 2015. Sacred or profane? República, 9 January 2015

Bhattarai, Suju. 2015. Time to ban Nepal banda: However hard some people might try to justify bandas, I think that they are organised primarily to fulfil the vested interests of a few politicians. The Kathmandu Post, 26 January 2015

Bhattarai, Tilchandra. 2015. Free the animals: There is a good market for organic meat production in Nepal and a need for it too. The Kathmandu Post, 4 March 2015

Bhattarai, Umesh K. . 2015. Conflict theories and Nepal: No rational thinking. The Himalayan Times, 11 February 2015

Bhattarai, Umesh K. . 2015. National security dynamics: Core questions should be settled. The

Himalayan Times, 13 March 2015

Bhattarai, Umesh K. . 2015. Stability and development: Consensus is necessary. The Himalayan Times, 25 February 2015

Bhusal, Thira L. 2015. Signs of Thaw: Top leaders from the two sides have been holding informal negotiations. República, 13 February 2015

Bista, Kirti Nidhi. 2015. Tripartite benefits: President Xi Jinping and Prime Minister Narendra Modi are in a mood to start a new era in Indo-China relationships; Nepal is sure to benefit from this. República, 26 January 2015

BK, Man Bahadur. 2015. No downside to diversity: Diversity in the workplace promotes sustainable growth, increases productivity, and provides businesses with a competitive advantage. The Kathmandu Post, 16 January 2015

Bom, Prakash. 2015. By all, for all: NC-UML's rhetoric sends the message that the constitution is being written only for the ruling parties. The Kathmandu Post, 12 February 2015

Chalise, Suresh C. 2015. The UN as witness: An account of how the Seven-Party Alliance and Maoists agreed to involve the UN in monitoring Nepal's peace process. The Kathmandu Post, 25 January 2015

Chamlagain, Deepak. 2015. Trouble with tremors: South Asia needs a regional framework on earthquake data exchange and information sharing. The Kathmandu Post, 15 January 2015

Chhetri, Subarna. 2015. A consensus constitution: Mission impossible? The Himalayan Times, 24 February 2015

Chin, Curtis S. / Collazo, Jose B. 2015. America pivots south: There is a real opportunity at hand for expanded US engagement with Asia, including Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 2 February 2015

Dahal, Madan Kumar. 2015. Reviving the road: Landlocked economies in South Asia could benefit from China's plans to build the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road. The Kathmandu Post, 10 March 2015

Dahal, Pushpa Kamal. 2015. Party chairmanship is not enough for Prachanda. Interview. República, 6 January 2015

Dahal, Semanta. 2015. A federal seat: In the churning over federalism, discussions over a federal capital have been resigned to the sidelines. The Kathmandu Post, 16 February 2015

Dahal, Semanta. 2015. Development non grata: Govt should seek the cooperation of foreign embassies in Kathmandu for its road-expansion drive. The Kathmandu Post, 22 January 2015

Dahal, Subas Chandra. 2015. Use it wise: For productive utilization of remittance it must be channelled into capital formation. República, 10 February 2015

Dahal, Subecha. 2015. The feminist mystique: It is important to reiterate, even after decades of global feminist activism, that feminism does not translate to a hatred of men. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Daneku, Ramesh. 2015. Stop The Orphanage Business. The Rising Nepal, 31 March 2015

Devkota, Khimlal. 2015. Federalize the parties: Restructuring of our political parties is crucial for successful state restructuring. República, 9 February 2015

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Bagale, Shiba. 2015. Down and out: High prevalence of dropouts in primary education is a significant impediment to providing free primary education. The Kathmandu Post, 20 February 2015

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Bagale, Shiba. 2015. Education And Women In Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 15 March 2015

Dhakal, Maheshwar. 2015. Wetlands for our future: Political commitment and cooperation from locals can help conserve wetlands. The Kathmandu Post, 1 February 2015

Dhakal, Tika P. 2015. Forget deadline: Deadlines are good as long as they serve the purpose; In Nepal's constitutional process breach of deadlines has become a routine. República, 6

January 2015

Dhakal, Tika P. 2015. The new Right: On every single issue from federalism to inclusion, Maoist left has raced far from the center only to meet Kamal Thapa on the right. República, 26 January 2015

Dhungana, Daman Nath. 2015. Constitution must address both NC-UML and Maoist agendas. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 2 February 2015

Dixit, Hemang. 2015. Who & what is Nepali? New Spotlight, 16 January 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. A tribute to Bhagirath Bhaiya: The reconstruction of a 17th Century temple in Patan is more than an exercise in architectural preservation. The Kathmandu Post, 27 February 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. By Nepalis, for Nepalis: The international community must pull back and let the political players arrive at a dignified conclusion. The Kathmandu Post, 30 January 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. He does protest too much: Baburam Bhattarai spent his time in New Delhi pooh-poohing the choice of Nepal's electorate. The Kathmandu Post, 13 March 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. High-end Nepal: The focus must be on maximising value and distributing largesse on everything Nepal does. The Kathmandu Post, 2 January 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. Je suis Gangamaya: You will write the constitution if you understand the needs of conflict victims and the Tarai's poor. The Kathmandu Post, 16 January 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. The accountability of Sushil Koirala: Dr Govinda KC (alive) and Nanda Prasad Adhikari (dead) speak for the weak and desolate. The Kathmandu Post, 27 March 2015

Dixit, Kanak Mani. 2015. The Kathmandu essayist: Our reading culture cannot progress in the absence of Kamal Prakash Malla. The Kathmandu Post, 13 February 2015

Dixit, Niranjana Mani. 2015. Diplomatic norms and ethics: Contradictions and anomalies. The Himalayan Times, 19 March 2015

Fatti, Marouan. 2015. Jai Madhes: Madhesis shouldn't have to make way for a 'New Nepal'; rather, they should stand at its core. The Kathmandu Post, 29 March 2015

Gajurel, Ashish. 2015. Make way: Kathmandu must develop a proper public transport system before contemplating road space rationing. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Gajurel, Ashish. 2015. The rights of all: Government needs to bring policies that protect the rights of the protesters without hampering the mobility of people during protests. The Kathmandu Post, 8 February 2015

Galimberti, Simone. 2015. For one another: Encouraging young South Asians to volunteer in SAARC member states could bring the region closer. The Kathmandu Post, 18 January 2015

Galimberti, Simone. 2015. Yet to be tapped: All of society must realise the economic potential of youths living with disabilities. The Kathmandu Post, 1 March 2015

Gautam, Bimal. 2015. In favor of ballots: Both the ruling and opposition party leaders must sit together to narrow down their differences without further delay. República, 11 February 2015

Gautam, Bimal. 2015. Promotion games: Our promotion system is neither transparent nor cogent; Those with leadership traits are rarely given opportunity. República, 25 March 2015

Gautam, Bimal. 2015. Stop tomfoolery: Leaders fooled voters during election campaign; The betrayed people by failing to deliver timely constitution. República, 21 January 2015

Gautam, Bishnu Prasad. 2015. Constitution In Three Weeks, Is It Possible? The Rising Nepal, 2 January 2015

Gautam, Dipendra. 2015. Chasing the Churia: The sensitive Churia range is under grave threat due to unrestrained mining of stone, sand, and gravel. The Kathmandu Post, 10 February 2015

Gautam, Dipendra. 2015. Indigenous versus modern: Building with cultural features. The Himalayan Times, 7 January 2015

Gautam, Durga. 2015. Flawed rhetoric of Madhes politics: Over and above the problems. The Himalayan Times, 27 January 2015

Gautam, Santosh / Thapa, Purna Bahadur. 2015. The next frontier: People need to be at the centre of development plans for them to be a success. The Kathmandu Post, 4 February 2015

Ghale, Shesh. 2015. Proper policies should be framed to bring about positive changes. Interview. The Himalayan Times, 16 March 2015

Ghimire, Binod. 2015. Heads and shoulders above. The Kathmandu Post, 19 March 2015

Ghimire, Narayan Prasad. 2015. Corruption Reporters On Target. The Rising Nepal, 15 February 2015

Ghimire, Sanjeev. 2015. It's all about the water: Hydropower has further energised relations between Nepal and India. The Kathmandu Post, 26 January 2015

Ghimire, Sarin. 2015. Nurturing democracy: Only competent and honest representatives can safeguard democratic norms, resulting in healthy politics and a stable government. The Kathmandu Post, 6 January 2015

Ghosh, Rakhi. 2015. Talking About Safe Sex With Teens. The Rising Nepal, 7 February 2015

Gurung, Hum. 2015. Community first: The government must trust locals to continue with its conservation efforts in the Annapurna region. The Kathmandu Post, 13 January 2015

Gurung, Ransubba. 2015. Doubly alienated: Nepali women who work as domestic workers in the Middle East and return home with babies conceived through rape find it extremely difficult to reintegrate into society. The Kathmandu Post, 3 January 2015

Gurung, Sabi. 2015. A silent killer: Suicide among Nepali women aged 15-45 increased from 10 percent in 1998 to 16 percent in 2009; It is now leading cause of death among Nepali women of reproductive age. República, 7 February 2015

Gurung, Surya Kiran. 2015. TRC has been formed to restore justice system, reconcile society. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 16 February 2015

Gyawali, Dipak. 2015. Failure Beyond Excuses. New Spotlight, 13 February 2015

Gyawali, Dipak. 2015. Where Did It All Go Wrong? New Spotlight, 6 March 2015

Himalayan Times (publ.). 2015. Half of women of reproductive age marry before 18. The Himalayan Times, 15 January 2015

Human Rights Watch. 2015. World Report 2015: Country chapter on Nepal. New York: Human Rights Watch, 29 January 2015

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2015. Baburam and Prachanda are best suited for their current roles, as thought and organisational leaders. The Kathmandu Post, 8 February 2015

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2015. Disruptive proposal: Ethnocentric federalism cannot be a solution to the ills of this country. The Kathmandu Post, 15 March 2015

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2015. Down to the wire: The ruling parties' willpower to promulgate the statute through a vote and the opposition's ability to foil the move will determine the fate of the constitution. The Kathmandu Post, 11 January 2015

Jha, Dipendra. 2015. Branches and boundaries: The protests in Kalaiya and Simara foretell the challenges of federating the country. The Kathmandu Post, 9 March 2015

Jha, Dipendra. 2015. Constituency politics: If the five districts are removed from the Madhes Pradesh, the Madhes will be deprived of river and forest resources. The Kathmandu Post, 31 March 2015

Jha, Dipendra. 2015. Deadlock and deadline: Sideline moderate voices will provide more space for radical elements to take advantage. The Kathmandu Post, 7 January 2015

Jha, Dipendra. 2015. Forced hand: If parties are serious about ending the deadlock, they need to talk on both constitution and power sharing. The Kathmandu Post, 4 February 2015

Jha, Dipendra. 2015. Marching marginalisation: Marchwar in Rupandehi provides a telling example of the disconnect between state and society. The Kathmandu Post, 20 February 2015

Jha, Hari Bansh. 2015. For a Hindu state: Pro Hindu groups believe Nepal was declared a secular state under the designs of western powers and radical communists. República, 10 January 2015

Jha, Hari Bansh. 2015. Looming China: China has been actively wooing small countries like Maldives, Bhutan and Nepal to reduce India's dominance in South Asia. República, 31 January 2015

Jha, Hari Bansh. 2015. Power of one: Aware of the potential of SAARC, Indian Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee had mooted common South Asian currency in 2003; It's a pity that his idea failed to get ground. República, 26 March 2015

Jha, Hari Bansh. 2015. Troubling signs: Signs of foreign interference are evident; Some external forces appear uncomfortable with the idea of federal state in Nepal. República, 18 March 2015

Jha, Nanu. 2015. The right price: A sound agricultural pricing policy can help achieve self sufficiency in food grains and increase their export potential. The Kathmandu Post, 13 February 2015

Jha, Roshan Kumar. 2015. Move Forward In Rape Cases. The Rising Nepal, 21 March 2015

Jha, Roshan Kumar. 2015. Rapes rising: Rapists who come from powerful families are never punished; The poor victims never get justice. República, 14 March 2015

Joshi Ratala, Dinesh Prasad. 2015. Divide and rule: Separation of Kailali and Kanchanpur from the Far-West region is a conspiracy against people and is not in keeping with the spirit of change. República, 26 February 2015

Joshi, Aashis Raj. 2015. Perks of parks: For a fertile valley surrounded by forested hills, Kathmandu suffers from absence of green space. República, 31 January 2015

Joshi, Janak Raj. 2015. Democracy and the oligarchs: Despite the country inching towards a full democracy, the structure of Nepali politics remains oligarchic. The Kathmandu Post, 21 January 2015

Joshi, Ramesh Man. 2015. Birds vis-a-vis TIA – An Unfortunate Correlation. The Rising Nepal, 13 January 2015

K.C., Durgalal. 2015. Forgotten after the war: Even with the end of the Maoist revolution, the government has done nothing to improve the condition of the people in Rukum and Rolpa. The Kathmandu Post, 14 March 2015

K.C., Rebanta Bahadur. 2015. Foreign Policy With Clear Guidelines Needed. The Rising Nepal, 30 January 2015

K.C., Sony. 2015. Black gold: Farmers in Ilam are willing to give another shot at cardamom cultivation if the government helps eradicate disease. The Kathmandu Post, 29 March 2015

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2015. Chinese case: Similar agro-biodiversity of Tibet and northern Nepal makes cooperation between the two meaningful. República, 5 January 2015

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2015. Room for more: Foreign direct investment in agriculture, land ownership, and right to food issues lack clarity in agriculture development strategy. República, 3 February 2015

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2015. Unvalued urchins: Overharvesting of medicinal plants to meet global needs have put them on the brink. República, 30 March 2015

Kandel, Pratikshya / Chettri, Nakul. 2015. Rich biodiversity of Kangchenjunga Challenges of global concern. The Himalayan Times, 23 February 2015

Karki, Lok Man Singh. 2015. Only collective efforts can free Nepal from corruption. The Himalayan Times, 11 February 2015

Khadka, Arjun Kumar. 2015. For want of water: The demand for water continues to increase but even major cities are not able to meet the needs of citizens. The Kathmandu Post, 22 March 2015

Khadka, Nahendra. 2015. Corruption: Systemic Disease Of Capitalism. The Rising Nepal, 3 February 2015

Khadka, Rup Bahadur. 2015. Excise Duties In The SAARC Region. The Rising Nepal, 13 February 2015

Khadka, Rup Bahadur. 2015. Individual Income Tax In SAARC Region. The Rising Nepal, 3 January 2015

Khadka, Rup Bahadur. 2015. Road To SAARC Customs Union. The Rising Nepal, 6 March 2015

Khadka, Rup Bahadur. 2015. Value added tax in the SAARC region. The Rising Nepal, 17 January 2015

Khadka, Suman. 2015. Drawing caste lines: More than quotas, the focus should be on building a meritocracy, which will lead to better inclusivity. The Kathmandu Post, 26 February 2015

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2015. Churning the ocean: Until parties understand the aspirations for federalism, constitution drafting will remain tedious. The Kathmandu Post, 4 March 2015

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2015. Democracy in crisis: Political parties are not interested in carrying out reforms that can promote inclusion and unleash growth. The Kathmandu Post, 18 March 2015

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2015. More than just content: If ruling coalition's 'process' continues, there is danger of sections of opposition being pushed out of CA. The Kathmandu Post, 5 February 2015

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2015. Seeing like the oligarchy: The tunnel vision of KP Oli and Sushil Koirala seeks to impose order and definitiveness on a fluid reality. The Kathmandu Post, 18 February 2015

Khanal, Dilli Raj. 2015. Assessing government performance: Criteria essential. The Himalayan Times, 20 February 2015

Khanal, Dilli Raj. 2015. Goals of sustainable development: Means need to be concretized. The Himalayan Times, 14 January 2015

Khanal, Dilli Raj. 2015. Stands of political parties: Historic moves or blunders? The Himalayan Times, 4 February 2015

Khanal, Mukesh. 2015. Bad to worse: Rape has become the most common violence inflicted on women in Nepal and over the world. República, 16 March 2015

Khanal, Mukesh. 2015. Development failure: Development sector in Nepal is myopic, saddled with short-term projects; Long-term projects are deemed unworthy as immediate results are not visible. República, 11 February 2015

Khanal, Mukesh. 2015. Flawed narrative: Poverty and lack of economic opportunities has meant that Nepal is rapidly losing its working-age population to overseas. República, 2 February 2015

Khanal, Mukesh. 2015. Loose tongue: KP Oli's recent Freudian slip could have far-reaching consequences in national politics. Rep, 12 January 2015

Khanal, Prashanta. 2015. Time to rethink: Existing road infrastructure for pedestrians and cycle users are not only inadequate but also poorly designed. República, 5 January 2015

Khanal, Prem Kumar. 2015. Public Service For People And TUI Congress. The Rising Nepal, 13 February 2015

Khanal, Rajesh. 2015. 4 key ministries show low capital spending: As of the first eight months of the fiscal year, they have been able to spend only Rs 20.51 billion out of their combined budget allocation of Rs 91.43 billion. The Kathmandu Post, 20 March 2015

Kharel, Amrit. 2015. Nepali Corporate-Press ties: Conflict of interests. The Himalayan Times, 20 March 2015

Kharel, Dinesh. 2015. Problem of water shortage: Harvest rainwater. The Himalayan Times, 26 March 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. Dr. KC: At The Height Of Talks And Popularity. The Rising Nepal, 31 March 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. Plus Two Colleges Facing Death. The Rising Nepal, 17 March 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. Security: Major Concern For Schools. The Rising Nepal, 24 March 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. Time Of Hopelessness And Shame. The Rising Nepal, 10 February 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. UNESCO: Promoting Mother Tongue For Peace And Progress. The Rising Nepal, 24 February 2015

Khatry, Prem K. 2015. Yogi Naraharinath And Swami Prapannacharya Makers Of History. The Rising Nepal, 3 March 2015

Koirala, Bharat. 2015. Seven lakes in Lekhnath on verge of extinction: Human encroachment, inaction on the part of authorities putting water bodies at risk. The Himalayan Times, 1 February 2015

Koirala, Kosh Raj. 2015. Uncertainty over new statute: How long can Nepal afford to remain in political transition? República, 16 January 2015

Korver, Sarah. 2015. Reaching the unreachable: With the private and public sector running parallel, Nepal has the opportunity to extend coverage for tuberculosis by engaging all care providers. The Kathmandu Post, 24 March 2015

Krämer, Karl-Heinz. 2015. Nepal in 2014: Continued failure of party leaders. Think South Asia 17:12-17

Kunwar, Niranjana. 2015. Charting a course: A time of national debate is also a time to revise school curricula in meaningful and relevant ways. The Kathmandu Post, 15 February 2015

Kunwar, Niranjana. 2015. Forbidden territory: 'The Laramie Project' provides an opportunity for families to engage in potentially mind-stretching conversations. The Kathmandu Post, 6 March 2015

Kunwar, Niranjana. 2015. Getting it together: The country coordinating mechanism for the Global Fund to fight AIDS, TB and Malaria needs to work collaboratively. The Kathmandu Post, 25 March 2015

Lakhe, Subhash. 2015. To the good doctor: I do not support Dr KC's cause if the final aim is to halt affiliations for new medical colleges at any cost. The Kathmandu Post, 27 March 2015

Lal, C.K. 2015. Political anxiety disorder: The bluff of two-third majority is unlikely to matter to groups that have almost no stake in stability of the existing system. República, 5 January 2015

Lal, C.K. 2015. The amber polity: In functional democracy, commandos in precincts of parliament would have been bigger scandal than brawl between ruling and opposition benches. República, 2 February 2015

Lal, C.K. 2015. The generational shift: It is difficult to find much difference in the extent, style and limitations of executive authority between Marich Man Singh and Sushil Koirala. República, 16 March 2015

Lal, C.K. 2015. The IC connection: The realization doesn't seem to have sunk in Dahal that the interests of the Nepal Army constitute the main concern of the IC in Nepal. República, 16 February 2015

Lal, C.K. 2015. The Madhesh Question: Eight years after Madhesh uprising, Madheshis are still waiting; The long silence doesn't imply the externalized population of the country has been silenced. República, 19 January 2015

Lama, Hari Man. 2015. Buddhism on tour: Nepali and Indian governments must invest in infrastructure development along the proposed Buddhist circuit. The Kathmandu Post, 11 January 2015

Lama, Kishor Kumar. 2015. One step ahead: Nepal Police must be commended for their stellar work in apprehending assassins behind Justice Bam's murder. The Kathmandu Post, 27 February 2015

Lamsal, Yuba Nath. 2015. Are Parties Prepared To Make Sacrifices? The Rising Nepal, 20 February 2015

LeVine, Sarah. 2015. Know your rights: Those with riparian rights to river basins must be given knowledge regarding the sanctity and utility of their water. The Kathmandu Post, 2 January 2015

Maharjan, Kedar. 2015. Nepal at crossroads: Although Nepal is a multiethnic and multilingual nation, we tolerate discrimination of citizens based on caste, creed and color. República, 6 January 2015

Maharjan, Kedar. 2015. Psychopathy And Politics In Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 22-23 January 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Constitution making process must go on. The Rising Nepal, 12 February 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Constitution On A Knife-edge. The Rising Nepal, 26 March 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Constitution-making Process Begins. The Rising Nepal, 29 January 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Inter-party Confidence Still Lacking. The Rising Nepal, 12 March 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Moving Sideways Towards Consensus. The Rising Nepal, 19 March 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. No Constitution Today. The Rising Nepal, 22 January 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Politics Of Threat And Intimidation Does Not Yield Results. The Rising Nepal, 26 February 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Protests Won't Lead To Constitution-making. The Rising Nepal, 5 February 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Rationale Behind Formation Of Task Force Not Justified. The Rising Nepal, 1 January 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. To-ing and fro-ing. The Rising Nepal, 15 January 2015

Maharjan, Uttam. 2015. Where Has Constitution Making Gone Amiss? The Rising Nepal, 5 March 2015

Mahat, Tek Jung. 2015. Tackling climate challenges in Nepal – understanding the present status. New Spotlight, 30 January 2015

Manandhar, Bikram. 2015. Money matters: Migrant workers need to be informed about the best ways to use and invest remittance. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Manandhar, Narayan. 2015. A game of chicken: Both coalitions, ruling and opposition, are locked head-to-head; who will flinch first? The Kathmandu Post, 6 February 2015

Manandhar, Narayan. 2015. Faults in foreigners: If donors are serious about their anti-corruption efforts, they should first conduct an appraisal into their own situation. The Kathmandu Post, 8 January 2015

Manandhar, Narayan. 2015. Misplaced priorities: The present turmoil is all about power-sharing rather than a real fight for an all-inclusive constitution. The Kathmandu Post, 23 January 2015

Manandhar, Narayan. 2015. Political avatars: The current political imbroglio can be attributed to rivalries within parties as much as between parties. The Kathmandu Post, 24 February 2015

Manandhar, Narayan. 2015. To the sea: When CIAA itself is formed under the system of bhaagbanda, how will it catch the big fish? The Kathmandu Post, 13 March 2015

Manandhar, Tri Ratna. 2015. Taking wing: The removal of the Turkish Airlines aircraft from TIA was conducted perfectly, honestly, and professionally. The Kathmandu Post, 18 March 2015

Mandal, Suresh. 2015. By the letter: By itself, the adoption of letter grades on the SLC will not help; outdated methods of teaching and assessment must also change. The Kathmandu Post, 23 January 2015

March, Kathryn S. 2015. Education, Nepali-style: Here is why students will do well in their School Leaving Certificate exams this year. The Kathmandu Post, 20 March 2015

Mathema, Kedar Bhakta. 2015. Very little teaching, learning goes on in public schools. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 23 March 2015

McGoldrick, Jamie. 2015. Be prepared: When building a new home, make sure you use an angeneer and mason trained in earthquake safety. República, 14 January 2015

McGoldrick, Jamie. 2015. Sustainable development: Water matters. The Himalayan Times, 23 March 2015

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2015. Chinese interest: Frequent visits of Chinese delegations show China's apprehensions vis-à-vis Nepal. República, 7 January 2015

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2015. Federated Nepal: Will It Weaken Or Strengthen Nationhood? The Rising Nepal, 5 February 2015

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2015. Nembang's words and spirit: Incompatible with each other. The Himalayan Times, 9 January 2015

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2015. Polarized politics: Where will it lead? The Himalayan Times, 6 February 2015

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2015. Worth the paper? The use of machines in voting has definitely advantages; A vote once recorded in EVM cannot be tampered with. República, 19 March 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Extremism breeds extremism: Willingness to compromise, no matter how painful, can pave the way for a constitution that will endure. The Kathmandu Post, 23 January 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Give and take: If a few districts in the west or east need breaking up for the constitution to be written, break them up. The Kathmandu Post, 8 January 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Identity and ideology: Striving for identity in Nepal is not just about recognition; it is a deeper and more material need. The Kathmandu Post, 5 February 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Language of the local: The marginalised vernacular can no longer be pushed around by the pronouncements of the elite. The Kathmandu Post, 19 February 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Right to know: The public deserves to know what goes on in negotiations behind closed doors and who the spoilers are. The Kathmandu Post, 19 March 2015

Mishra, Pramod. 2015. Years of writing: When I look back, I find my columns polemic, especially after the failure of the first Constituent Assembly. The Kathmandu Post, 5 March 2015

Mishra, Tirtha Prasad. 2015. Campaign against blindness: Limitations and challenges. The Himalayan Times, 30 March 2015

Mulmi, Subin. 2015. Conjunction conundrum: Now that the opposition has agreed to the 'or' provision on citizenship, it is up to the ruling parties to follow through. The Kathmandu Post, 10 February 2015

Nepal, Dinkar. 2015. Certain death: It is not surprising how inconsequential the anti-climax of the hullabaloo over the deadline for the constitution became in the end. República, 27 January 2015

Nepali, Subhash. 2015. Missing the mark: Development must strengthen the political agency of disadvantaged groups while addressing cultural practices that reinforce inequality. The Kathmandu Post, 20 March 2015

Nepali, Subhash. 2015. What a waste: Nepal has neither been able to utilise its population dividend nor the remittances sent in by young people. The Kathmandu Post, 18 February 2015

Neupane, Ishwori. 2015. Protecting Pokhara's crown jewel: After years of negligence, Phewa Lake finally seems to be receiving the care that it badly needs. The Kathmandu Post, 14 March 2015

Neupane, Kosh P. 2015. Flasks half-filled: Chemical science in Nepal awaits serious investment in research. The Kathmandu Post, 27 January 2015

Neupane, Tufan. 2015. Women Drug Addicts At Greater Risk Than Men. The Rising Nepal, 6 February 2015

Panday, Devendra Raj. 2015. Only Independent Mediation Will Help Resolve the crisis. Interview. República, 22 January 2015

Panday, Saprina. 2015. Promulgation of a constitution: Street protests counter-productive. The Himalayan Times, 20 February 2015

Pandey, Binda. 2015. Strong presence of women in first CA did make a difference. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 16 March 2015

Pandey, Deepika. 2015. Wetlands for the world: Diversity under threat. The Himalayan Times, 3 February 2015

Pandey, Ramesh Nath. 2015. Road to uncertainty: If this CA also fails to promulgate the statute, Nepal's constitution will never be written by an elected assembly. República, 19 January 2015

Pandit, Gandhi. 2015. Financing development projects: Lessons from past mistakes. The Himalayan Times, 28 January 2015

Paneru, Yogendra P. 2015. Enlarging the pie: Parties must pursue negotiations on a win-win framework as bottom-line negotiations tend to create winners and losers. The Kathmandu Post, 15 February 2015

Paneru, Yogendra P. 2015. Modernising democracy: Nepal requires a strong, stable federal government with a directly-elected PM or President. The Kathmandu Post, 1 February 2015

Pant, Bhubanesh. 2015. Productive use of remittances: To spur economic growth. The Himalayan Times, 15 February 2015

Parajuli, Anjita. 2015. Daughters as traitors: By doing away with the 'or' provision on citizenship, the state is seeking to institute gender bias as a national policy. The Kathmandu Post, 17 March 2015

Paswan, Vishwendra / Sherchand, Shakun. 2015. Waiting for an epitaph: Today's woman is freer than her mother or grandmother, but her freedom is still circumscribed. The Kathmandu Post, 13 March 2015

Paudel, Jayash. 2015. Dealing with corruption: Heights of hype. The Himalayan Times, 16 March 2015

Paudel, Narendra Raj. 2015. Overemphasis on consensus: Limiting the people's verdict. The Rising Nepal, 16 January 2015

Paudel, Ramesh Kumar. 2015. Tough life: The Bote community has been stripped of their livelihood. República, 13 March 2015

Paudel, Samira. 2015. Accessing education: The more educated people are, the less inclined they become towards what they see as less dignified work. The Kathmandu Post, 1 March 2015

Paudel, Shreya. 2015. New unity: One can disagree with the Maoists' violent past but still agree with the legitimate issues they have raised. The Kathmandu Post, 3 March 2015

Paudyal, Bijaya Raj. 2015. Protect The Earth's Kidneys – Wetlands. The Rising Nepal, 6 February 2015

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2015. Bed of thorns: Risks and challenges to constitution making have multiplied during two-month moratorium since CA missed January 22 deadline. República, 24 March 2015

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2015. Big picture: No small fry ventures into big corruption unless they have strong backing from the politicians who come to their rescue when in trouble. República, 5 February 2015

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2015. Now or never: If there will be no constitution now there is unlikely to be one in the next three years; If January 22 deadline is missed, many things will be lost to it. República, 7 January 2015

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2015. Paradigm shift: Anything Maoists do will be perceived as a design to push their petty interests or even madness. República, 24 January 2015

Piyya, Sachin. 2015. All about money: With support from banking and financial institutions, Nepal can turn into a nation of responsible debtors. The Kathmandu Post, 23 January 2015

Pokharel, Alok. 2015. Bring the draft: Constitution that doesn't address contentious issues and lacks consent of parties to CA will raise the question of legitimacy. República, 20 January 2015

Pokharel, Anisha. 2015. The vulture song: In-situ conservation along with conservation advocacy will help revive the vulture population. The Kathmandu Post, 3 March 2015

Poudel, Bhoj Raj. 2015. Breaking the silence: Gyanendra Shah's press statement about past agreements raises multiple questions. The Kathmandu Post, 12 March 2015

Poudel, Bhoj Raj. 2015. False narrative: It would be unwise to leave the task of writing the constitution completely to the NC and UML. The Kathmandu Post, 27 January 2015

Poudel, Ganesh. 2015. Scientific Forest Management. The Rising Nepal, 9 January 2015

Poudel, Keshab. 2015. How Safe? New Spotlight, 16 January 2015

Poudel, Keshab. 2015. Politics: Controlled Chaos. New Spotlight, 30 January 2015

Pradhan, Prachanda. 2015. Why Focus On Small Scale Irrigation Systems. The Rising Nepal, 27 February 2015

Pradhan, Prashanta. 2015. Push for power: Nepal should cooperate with India and other countries to bring in more foreign direct investment in hydropower. The Kathmandu Post, 3 February 2015

Pranjali, Suresh. 2015. For economic ends: Nepal needs to pursue economic diplomacy to bring in more foreign direct investment. The Kathmandu Post, 31 March 2015

Prasain, Jeevan K. 2015. Knowing The Quality Before Drinking. The Rising Nepal, 9 January 2015

Prasain, Sangam. 2015. SIA project springs back to life after Turkish jet mishap. The Kathmandu Post, 10 March 2015

Prsali, Drona P. 2015. Keeping it together: An integrated organic farming system run as public-private partnership can help Nepal tap international markets. The Kathmandu Post, 28 January 2015

Pudasini, Sakar / Shrestha, Dipeshwor Man. 2015. Assaying the Iron Gate: A high SLC pass rate by itself is not sufficient evidence that private schools are providing relevant learning experiences to children. The Kathmandu Post, 27 March 2015

Pun, Min. 2015. Canonising literature: With Devkota, Upadhyay, and Joshi, Nepali literature in English has now achieved canonical status. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Pun, Min. 2015. The politics of canon: The debate over the inclusion of Nepali English writers in a literary canon is a political one. The Kathmandu Post, 25 January 2015

Pun, Weena. 2015. Green battalions: Retired army personnel, many of whom leave for work abroad, could instead be encouraged to work in reforestation projects at home. The Kathmandu Post, 7 March 2015

Pun, Weena. 2015. Mistreated in Malaysia: Migrant workers in Malaysia are routinely harassed by its policemen; But neither the employers nor the state machinery do anything to curb such treatment. The Kathmandu Post, 28 March 2015

Rai, Jessica. 2015. Men behind our maadals. The Himalayan Times, 24 January 2015

Rai, Om Astha. 2015. Who cares about the constitution? Nepalis are more concerned about inflation, unemployment, corruption, lack of water and electricity than the constitution. Nepali Times, 16 January 2015

Raj, Prakash A. 2015. Kangaroo courts: District offices are misusing their quasi-judicial powers and flouting directives from the country's courts. The Kathmandu Post, 26 February 2015

Raj, Yogesh / Onta, Pratyoush. 2014. The State of history education and research in Nepal. Kathmandu: Martin Chautari

Rana, Pranaya SJB. 2015. My city of ruins: I don't feel the same about this city anymore. The Kathmandu Post, 10 January 2015

Rana, Pranaya SJB. 2015. State of siege: Sunday's acid attack is the product of a rapacious mentality that sees women as objects to be possessed. The Kathmandu Post, 25 February 2015

Rana, Pranaya SJB. 2015. The things we don't know: Nepal doesn't just have ruptures; it has gaping holes in its collective memory. The Kathmandu Post, 7 February 2015

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B. 2014. Sushil-led Government. Kathmandu Metro, 16 February 2014 – 30 March 2015

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B. 2015. Ban On Cow Slaughter, And Beef Eating In India: Its Implications In Nepal. Kathmandu Metro, 8 March 2015

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B. 2015. Prithvi Narayan Shah: Monster Of Injustice. Kathmandu Metro, 11 January 2015

Regmi, Krishna Raj. 2015. Consensus on Disputed Issues of Constitution. New Spotlight, 20 March 2015

Regmi, Sandhya. 2015. Case unsettled: I submit that the case of six-year-old Pooja's rape and subsequent death remains grossly unsettled. The Kathmandu Post, 24 March 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Common Man And Democracy. The Rising Nepal, 19 February 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Democratic State Building: Participatory Institutions Important. The Rising Nepal, 1 January 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Democratising Democracy: A Critical Challenge. The Rising Nepal, 29 January 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Governing Elite And Democracy In Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 26 February 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Mechanisms for community dispute resolution: Documentation is vital. The Rising Nepal, 12 February 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Non-formal Education For Active Citizenship. The Rising Nepal, 12 March 2015

Rijal, Mukti. 2015. Resolving Constitutional Impasse: Mediation Can Be Appropriate Tool. The Rising Nepal, 26 March 2015

Robins, Simon. 2015. Means and ends: Critical engagement with the transitional justice commissions will permit victims to tell their stories. The Kathmandu Post, 2 March 2015

Sah, Charitra. 2015. Colour of health: The new standard of 90 ppm lead in paints will ultimately help eliminate leaded paint from Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 20 January 2015

Sah, Krishna Kumar. 2015. Languages and federalism: An important connection. The Himalayan Times, 23 January 2015

Sapkota, Sanjeeb. 2015. Ebola in Nepal: A lot needs to be done to prepare ourselves to prevent an outbreak. The Kathmandu Post, 24 January 2015

Satyaj, Vikash Raj. 2015. Investment conditions: Has it improved? The Himalayan Times, 5 March 2015

Seddon, J. David. 2015. Construction of human identity: Flawed pre-selected categories. The Himalayan Times, 27 March 2015

Seddon, J. David. 2015. Some are more equal than others: The pros and cons of 'positive discrimination'. Nepali Times, 2 January 2015

Sedhai, Roshan. 2015. Easing the passage: Even as hundreds of Nepali men continue to take out loans for foreign employment at exorbitant interest rates, the government is yet to come up with a scheme to stop the trend. The Kathmandu Post, 7 March 2015

Sedhai, Roshan. 2015. No country for women: Despite a ban, women migrant workers come back from the Gulf in the thousands with harrowing tales of economic and physical exploitation. The Kathmandu Post, 9 January 2015

Sejuwal, Kalendra. 2015. Raji: A dying language. República, 2 January 2015

Senchurey, Rajendra. 2015. Peace Constitution Best Suits Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 16 January 2015

Shah, Anil. 2015. AAP in Delhi, Airbus in Kathmandu: Opportunities and challenges. The Himalayan Times, 13 February 2015

Shah, Anil. 2015. Demand of today's Nepal: New thinking, not polarization. The Himalayan Times, 17 March 2015

Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2015. Digital identities: Broader transformation of the Internet economy with implementation of a national e-ID could help propel this country towards prosperity. The Kathmandu Post, 30 January 2015

Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2015. Going digital: Nepal still seems clueless about the pressing need to move towards e-governance, even as its neighbours have embraced the digital age. The Kathmandu Post, 6 January 2015

Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2015. Youth of the nation: Nepal and Estonia re-established democracy around the same time, but while Estonia took a digital route, Nepal remains stuck in the past. The Kathmandu Post, 20 February 2015

Shah, Sukhdev. 2015. Majority rules: The constitution passed by two-third majority in the Constituent Assembly would be as legitimate as any constitution in the world. República, 3 February 2015

Shah, Sukhdev. 2015. Pie in the sky: The country is likely to remain in limbo for foreseeable future; The problem, it seems, will be resolved only with emergence of a strongman. República, 20 January 2015

Shahi, Pragati. 2015. Need to boost readiness to deal with tremor risks. The Kathmandu Post, 17 January 2015

Shahi, Pragati. 2015. Recovering from a seedy past. The Kathmandu Post, 17 January 2015

Shakya, Bijendra Man. 2015. Investors are not tourists: Foreign investment cannot be attracted simply by holding a year-long event. The Kathmandu Post, 28 January 2015

Shakya, Karishma. 2015. Blocking the way: Non-tariff barriers, along with high inflation and supply side constraints, are hurting Nepal's trade with India. The Kathmandu Post, 10 March 2015

Shakya, Purna Man. 2015. Draft constitution possible in a week. Interview. República, 15 January 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Beyond constitution: Issues related to the constitution have been seen from lenses that suit individuals rather than the nation. The Kathmandu Post, 20 January 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Goals for the governor: Chiranjeevi Nepal has five years to change financial regulations and incentivise financial institutions. The Kathmandu Post, 31 March 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Kolkata connection: Kathmandu and Kolkata have so much in common, they should be named sister cities. The Kathmandu Post, 6 January 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Neighbour's plan: The new Indian budget offers some lessons and benefits for Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 3 March 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Once bitten: The four-day closure of Tribhuvan International Airport should make us rethink civil aviation in Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 17 March 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Understanding Nepal: The recent spate of books on Nepal provides important pluralistic perspectives on our modern history. The Kathmandu Post, 3 February 2015

Shakya, Sujeev. 2015. Why things fail: Failure to understand the importance of institutional stability has impacted proper governmental regulation. The Kathmandu Post, 17 February 2015

Sharma, Ajapa. 2015. At home in the hills: Subhash Ghisingh's life has much to tell of the politics of federation in India. The Kathmandu Post, 8 February 2015

Sharma, Bam Dev. 2015. Education And Ethical Aspects. The Rising Nepal, 11 January 2015

Sharma, Himosh. 2015. Support For Medical Treatment Abroad. The Rising Nepal, 20 February 2015

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2015. Broken chairs and missed deadlines: To argue that ruling parties are attempting to bully the opposition through numbers is to defy the people's sovereignty. The Kathmandu Post, 1 February 2015

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2015. Last call: The ruling coalition must respect the people's mandate and stick to its multi-ethnic model of federalism. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2015. Old age problem: Non-Resident Nepalis should invest in an organisation which looks after their aged parents back home. The Kathmandu Post, 18 January 2015

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2015. Refusing a referendum. The Kathmandu Post, 15 February 2015

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2015. Samskaras down under: While traditional rituals reinforce Nepali identity among migrants in Australia, they are losing value. The Kathmandu Post, 15 March 2015

Sharma, Mukul. 2015. State of dysfunction: Nepal has failed to understand that its public administration is a relic of the past and built for an economy and society it never had. República, 3 January 2015

Sharma, Nabin. 2015. Not up to par: Nepal's failure to export agricultural products has a lot to do with its inability to meet international standards. The Kathmandu Post, 3 February 2015

Sharma, Rupak D. 2015. Policymakers nervous about Nepal's possible graduation. The Himalayan Times, 7 January 2015

Sharma, Sanjay. 2015. Writing it wrong: Representation and inclusion, agendas of Janaandolan II, have been seriously undermined by the NC-UML coalition. The Kathmandu Post, 24 February 2015

Sharma, Shyam. 2015. Fair game? Many argue that free speech is "not-negotiable" but then they are also unwilling to "negotiate" when it comes of preserving their own values. República, 4 February 2015

Sharma, Sumitra. 2015. Nursing the community: Community health nurses are critical parts of the healthcare regimen, and yet, many remain unaware of them. The Kathmandu Post, 29 January 2015

Sherpa, Lhamo Yangchen. 2015. Uneven and unequal: The gains that Nepal has made in maternal mortality are not distributed evenly across all geographic regions. The Kathmandu Post, 3 February 2015

Sherpa, Lhamo Yangchen. 2015. Wrong side of history: Refusal of CA members to say anything on moral grounds is equivalent to selling their own and rights of all others. The Kathmandu Post, 1 January 2015

Shrestha Adhikari, Mona. 2014. Time to go big: Imagine a society where women entrepreneurs export products to meet international demand. The Kathmandu Post, 8 March 2015

Shrestha, Hari. 2015. Unearthing the past: The ongoing Tilaurakot excavation will definitely provide new knowledge on ancient Kapilvastu. The Kathmandu Post, 6 February 2015

Shrestha, Kashish Das. 2015. Away from oil: Nepal must end oil exploration in the Tarai, as it is not worth putting the country's ecology and economy at risk. The Kathmandu Post, 13 February 2015

Shrestha, Prithvi Man. 2015. A poor start all over again: Govt spending pattern in the first half of last 4 fiscal years slow and unproductive. The Kathmandu Post, 20 January 2015

Shrestha, Ratna Sansar. 2015. Prudent Harnessing of Water Resources. New Spotlight, 30 January 2015

Shrestha, S. 2015. Alleviating Poverty. The Rising Nepal, 25 January 2015

Shrestha, Shrijana. 2015. Retaining youths: Population dividend has remained just a dream in Nepal as the nation faces an acute shortage of manpower. República, 7 January 2015

Shrestha, Umesh. 2015. Students are not the problem: Teachers need to step out of their daily classroom routine and defy the 'factory' model of education. The Kathmandu Post, 18 January 2015

Shukla, Anuradha. 2015. South Asian women share their struggles for work and wages. The Rising Nepal, 28 February 2015

Shukla, Sarbendra Nath. 2015. PM committed to constitution but unable to lead process. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 9 February 2015

Sigdel, Chahana. 2015. Khumbu street-viewed: Google Earth Outreach has partnered with local organisations—StoryCycle and the Apa Foundation—to help locals in the Everest region digitally represent their areas on Google Maps. The Kathmandu Post, 21 March 2015

Sigdel, Chahana. 2015. All about the attitude: The Nepali government has already created workplace policies that should help women in the workplace; But unless the men who run organisations willingly implement them, working women will continue to be treated unfairly. The Kathmandu Post, 14 February 2014

Sigdel, Chahana. 2015. The Mentor: Statistics suggest that there are around 5,000 street children in Nepal, with almost 800 to 1,000 children in Kathmandu alone. The Kathmandu Post, 24 January 2015

Simkhada, Shambhu Ram. 2015. Long wait: We have failed to manage recent changes and people are suffering for it. República, 28 January 2015

Singh Shrestha, Mandira / Gurung, Min Bahadur. 2015. Before the floods: Involving women and men equally in creating and receiving early warnings will save more lives and property. The Kathmandu Post, 8 March 2015

Singh, Binodkumar. 2015. Persistent Polarization. SAIR, Volume 13, No. 39, March 30, 2015

Siwakoti, Samikshya. 2015. Tax talk: The government can make good use of either a tax cut or a raise only if it makes good investments. The Kathmandu Post, 1 February 2015

Subba, Chaitanya. 2015. Perpetuating status quo: Those with privileges have hijacked constitutional deliberations, sidelining the marginalized voices. República, 21 January 2015

Subba, Rajib. 2015. Coming of age: Narendra Modi suddenly got off his bullet-proof vehicle, causing a panic at police command center; Lack of real time visuals was a problem. República, 17 January 2015

Subedi, Abhi. 2015. Archiving music: Bulu Mukarung, in a new volume, illustrates the spectrum of Nepali music's history, styles, lyrics, and performativity. The Kathmandu Post, 25 January 2015

Subedi, Abhi. 2015. English in Nepal: An independent organisation of English language teachers is setting out to achieve national goals. The Kathmandu Post, 22 February 2015

Subedi, Abhi. 2015. Nation of poets: Nepal presents a spectacular example of using poetry personally, politically, and socially. The Kathmandu Post, 8 February 2015

Subedi, Abhi. 2015. The dead tell tales: The cemetery near the British and Indian embassies speaks volumes about Nepal's relations with Britain and Europe. The Kathmandu Post, 11 January 2015

Subedi, Abhi. 2015. The secession bogeyman: Since the politicians do not represent us, they invoke the fear of separation when we ask for rights. The Kathmandu Post, 8 March 2015

Subedi, Bhim Prasad. 2014. The state of geography teaching and research in Nepal: A review and reflection. Kathmandu: Martin Chautari

Subedi, Kalidas. 2015. Salt of the earth: Bio-fertilisers can substantially reduce Nepal's dependency on chemical fertilisers and help sustain the soil. The Kathmandu Post, 17 February 2015

Subedi, Madhusudan Sharma / Uprety, Devendra. 2014. The state of sociology and anthropology: Teaching and research in Nepal. Kathmandu: Martin Chautari

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. CA Fiasco And Sinister Design. The Rising Nepal, 25 January 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Constituent Assembly, To Write Statute Or Spill Blood? The Rising Nepal, 18 January 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Give Momentum To The CA. The Rising Nepal, 29 March 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. In Defence Of Khas. The Rising Nepal, 22 February 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Meaningless Movement. The Rising Nepal, 1 February 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Nationalistic credentials under scrutiny. The Rising Nepal, 8 March 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. NC-UML Collaboration A Historic Necessity. The Rising Nepal, 15 March 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Split Bamboos & Maoist Broken Fate. The Rising Nepal, 1 March 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. State Restructuring: Why Fuss Over Five Districts. The Rising Nepal, 4 January 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Status of Madhes Before Unification: Debunking Some Heresies. The Rising Nepal, 11 January 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Tackling The Ethnic Threat. The Rising Nepal, 22 March 2015

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2015. Treading A Fine Line. The Rising Nepal, 8 February 2015

Subedi, Som Nath. 2015. The outsider: As a Bhutanese refugee resettled in America, I have realised that being American is all about immigration. The Kathmandu Post, 9 January 2015

Sunar, Giri Bahadur. 2015. Plight of untouchables: I was beaten black and blue by upper caste people when I attended a religious ceremony as a child. República, 28 March 2015

Sunar, Giri Bahadur. 2015. Sustainable development: Water is a key element. The Himalayan Times, 31 March 2015

Tamang, Seira. 2015. 'Mainstream' feminism. The Kathmandu Post, 11 March 2015

Tamot, Sophia K. 2015. Calling the shots: People deserve to know what is blocking the Hepatitis E vaccine in Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 27 January 2015

Tamot, Sophia K. 2015. Money and medicine: The doctor has become more like a hotel employee who works to generate profit for the employer. The Kathmandu Post, 24 March 2015

Tamot, Sophia K. 2015. Power of perception: Nepal cannot afford to squander the few positive signs of economic growth we have started to witness. The Kathmandu Post, 10 February 2015

Teerink, Rensje. 2015. Potential energy: It takes 22 days for merchandise such as coffee, carpets and pashmina shawls to reach Kolkata port; This is far too long. República, 28 March 2015

Tewa Dolpo, Tashi. 2015. Forgotten regime: Historical accounts of the Dolpo region largely have omitted discussion of the ancient Zhangzhung kingdom and focussed primarily on Tibet. The Kathmandu Post, 20 January 2015

Thapa, Ajit N.S. 2015. Moving forward: We can put state restructuring at hold while clearly mentioning in the statute that it shall be carried on in the future. República, 13 January 2015

Thapa, Ananda Bahadur. 2015. Separation of midhill disastrous to Nepal Terai. New Spotlight, 6 March 2015

Thapa, Archana. 2015. Masculinist logic: The proposed 'and' provision in granting citizenship insults autonomy of adult subjects who are rightful residents of Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 27 February 2015

Thapa, Bindu / Pandey, Sangita. 2015. Discriminatory Practices In Schools. The Rising Nepal, 30 January 2015

Thapa, Bishal. 2015. Itch of Tanahu: Political interference in the Tanahu hydro project illustrates why Nepal is doomed to decades more of darkness. República, 13 January 2015

Thapa, Deepak. 2015. Crisis of faith: Those who believe secularism arrived out of the blue forget history of activism to separate temple and state. The Kathmandu Post, 29 January 2015

Thapa, Deepak. 2015. Doktor saab: Social prestige is associated with being called 'Dr' even if the said doctors are not thus qualified. The Kathmandu Post, 12 March 2015

Thapa, Deepak. 2015. Educated and unemployed: More women are pursuing education degrees, but it will be difficult to gainfully engage them in work. The Kathmandu Post, 26 March 2015

Thapa, Deepak. 2015. Philosophers and kings: Our scholars on the federalism debate with strongly-held opinions that are worth encapsulating. The Kathmandu Post, 12 February 2015

Thapa, Deepak. 2015. The 90pc and other numbers: Numbers have long been used in the discussion over federalism, but they have not always been objective. The Kathmandu Post, 15 January 2015

Thapa, Gopal Bahadur. 2015. Lull before a storm: The silence that greeted the missed constitution deadline could be a sign of turmoil to come. The Kathmandu Post, 5 March 2015

Thapa, Gopal Bahadur. 2015. Out on the edge: Weakening of national sovereignty and territorial integrity have grave implications for Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 29 March 2015

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2015. An interesting irony. The Rising Nepal, 18 March 2015

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2015. No distant threat. The Rising Nepal, 11 March 2015

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2015. Reinventing Radio Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 11 February 2015

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2015. Senior Citizens' Plight. The Rising Nepal, 18 February 2015

Thapa, Man B. 2015. Before it strikes: Nepal should enact a comprehensive and pragmatic Disaster Management Act without delay. The Kathmandu Post, 8 February 2015

Thapa, Raj Kumar. 2015. Overcoming resistance: Unless urgent measures are taken to combat antibiotic resistance in developing countries like Nepal, there is risk of a pandemic. The Kathmandu Post, 1 February 2015

Thapa, Sharmila. 2015. Power on paper: Women should be made part of all decision-making bodies to uproot patriarchy. The Kathmandu Post, 4 January 2015

Thapa, Ujwal. 2015. Our own constitution: Since elected representatives failed to carry out their duties, BibekSheel Nepalis published a new constitution on Jan 22, 2015. República, 27 January 2015

Thapa, Y.B. 2015. Koshi basin cooperation: The way of optimizing benefits. The Himalayan Times, 2 January 2015

Tharu, Thakur Singh. 2015. Women's Cooperatives: A National Pride. The Rising Nepal, 23 January 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. CA Heading Towards The Process. The Rising Nepal, 12 January 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Controversial Decisions And Adamancy. The Rising Nepal, 30 March 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Deadlock And Demonstrations. The Rising Nepal, 2 March 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Internal Dynamics Of Parties And Constitution Writing. The Rising

Nepal, 23 March 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. No Alternative To Dialogue, Consensus. The Rising Nepal, 26 January 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Ominous Political Course. The Rising Nepal, 9 February 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Parties' Flawed Stances And Failures. The Rising Nepal, 19 January 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Radical Expressions Amid Bid For Consensus. The Rising Nepal, 16 February 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Save The Talks. The Rising Nepal, 16 March 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Unilateral Move Vs Consensus. The Rising Nepal, 2 February 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Ways To Sustain The Talks. The Rising Nepal, 9 March 2015

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2015. Weighing The Moves, Feeling Each Other's Pulses. The Rising Nepal, 23 February 2015

Tiwari, Shankar. 2015. India, stay away: Bhattarai has touched new low in his desperation for power; He and his supporters have no regard for relations between the two countries. República, 18 March 2015

Toffin, Gérard. 2015. Born sinful: TU's ethnographic profiles are a step towards a better understanding of excluded groups. The Kathmandu Post, 23 February 2015

Toffin, Gérard. 2015. Cities without addresses: The marked absence of street addresses in Kathmandu points to a persistence of traditional dwellings. The Kathmandu Post, 26 January 2015

Toffin, Gérard. 2015. Living together: The quest today concerns maintaining a balance between Nepal's unity and recognising its huge diversity. The Kathmandu Post, 7 January 2015

Toffin, Gérard. 2015. The Patan commune: Patan's civil insurgency during the first Janaandolan was a source of inspiration for the entire country. The Kathmandu Post, 23 March 2015

Tuladhar, Nhooja. 2015. Breaking the mould: Kathmandu's traditional metal artisans can't survive without modern copyright laws working on their behalf. The Kathmandu Post, 24 January 2015

Tuladhar, Prateebha. 2015. Carrying chitwan: Elephants play a pivotal role in Chitwan's tourism industry. But the pachyderms and their handlers have to put up with a lot of hardship to ensure that the industry hums along. The Kathmandu Post, 21 March 2015

Tumbahang, Govinda Bahadur. 2015. Situation Of Mother Tongues In Nepal. The Rising Nepal, 24 February 2015

Upadhyay, Akhilesh. 2015. Paradigm shift: Without a fundamental shift in the way politics is approached, it is difficult to see a new constitution. The Kathmandu Post, 19 January 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Apprehensive Maoist scurry for cover. The Rising Nepal, 25 March 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Dearth of daily essentials: Who is to blame. The Rising Nepal, 4 February 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Financial Anomaly Grips Nation. The Rising Nepal, 18 February 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. House Bedlam, Opposition Falls To New Low. The Rising Nepal, 21 January 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. No alternative to meaningful dialogue. The Rising Nepal, 11 February 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. No Alternative To Meaningful Talks. The Rising Nepal, 4 March 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Opposition engages in political showdown. The Rising Nepal, 25 February 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Pressure ploys put political process in peril. The Rising Nepal, 18 March 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Protests Aggravate Consensus Prospect. The Rising Nepal, 14 January 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Questionnaire Committee: Not everything is lost. The Rising Nepal, 28 January 2015

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2015. Renewed talks offer new optimism. The Rising Nepal, 11 March 2015

Upadhyay, Surya Nath. 2015. Foreign hand: Ineffectiveness of ruling elites seems to have provided legitimacy to outsiders to micro-manage our affairs openly. República, 3 February 2015

Upadhyaya, Shreeram Prasad. 2015. Women in Lichhavi Era: Highly respected. The Himalayan Times, 26 March 2015

Upreti, Pratyush Nath. 2015. A temporary solution: If consensus cannot be reached, temporary provisions could be included in the constitution to be evaluated later. The Kathmandu Post, 16 January 2015

Upreti, Pratyush Nath. 2015. Neutralising acid: Why is civil society concerned only when acts of gender-based violence take place in Kathmandu? The Kathmandu Post, 1 March 2015

Uprety, Batu Krishna. 2015. EA: It Is A Tool, Not Trouble. New Spotlight, 13 February 2015

Wagle, Geja Sharma. 2015. More positives, some negatives: Nepal's peace process, especially the integration and rehabilitation of former combatants, has conveyed positive messages to other conflict-ridden countries. The Kathmandu Post, 24 February 2015

Wagley, Mana Prasad / Regmi, Umesh Raj. 2015. Crimes in education: Education in Nepal is ridden with problems right from the school to the university level. The Kathmandu Post, 26 March 2015

World Bank. 2015. Global economic prospects – South Asia. Washington: The World Bank